Tour: Melbourne/Mornington Peninsula 5 nights/6 days

Itinerary

Melbourne is set around the shores of Port Phillip Bay. The city itself, laid out in a large rectangle and boasting a lively and cosmopolitan pulse, sits on the northern banks of the Yarra River, about five kilometers from the bay. It's obvious that Melbourne is a planned city: a tidy balanced grid of neatly angled streets. But beneath this sense of everything in its place restraint lies a restless creative energy constantly pushing back at the city's seeming conservatism. The CBD is made up of precincts – district enclaves each with its own flavor and charm. Some are just a lane or two, while others cover the banks of the Yarra River or a busy CBD street. Extending around the bay are a number of inner city suburbs, each with its own distinct character and personality. A short tram ride from the city centre, Melbourne's suburban neighborhoods are a must see for anyone wanting to experience what life here is really all about.

The Mornington Peninsula is only an hour's drive from Melbourne, but it seems a world away. In fact, the Peninsula now has an air that's reminiscent of the Mediterranean, with its vineyards and olive groves, its historic country house retreats and intimate hotels. While it's boot-shaped like Italy, the Mornington Peninsula is far easier to explore at a leisurely pace. You can travel the length of our coastlines, stopping at seaside villages, or just meander back and forth from one coast to the other on country roads with glorious views. Fine wine is always a magnet for fine food, and here you can buy just-picked and locally made produce, or let our restaurants and cafes tempt you with dishes that are the perfect complement to our regional wines.

Surfing, scuba diving, sailing, diving with dolphins or swimming with seals, fishing in Port Phillip Bay or the thrill of horse-riding along the sands of wind-swept Gunnamatta Beach. Gracious gardens, art galleries, heritage mansions, fine local art and craft galleries, antique stores and lively local markets.
