Client Testimonials

“When you look around there are many people and companies offering a range of events or tournament packages. If you are amongst the growing numbers of people who travel regularly, like I do, then you’ll know what dramas await the traveller. Make no mistake no matter how experienced a traveller you are, the unexpected always has a habit of showing up when you don’t need it. Geoff’s tours are probably not the cheapest but after having been on one they’re probably the best”.

“Geoff and his team not only went out of their way to accommodate some special connections I needed to make when I joined his US MASTERS tour, they were very competent in all aspects of our tour and each of the components. The itinerary was well prepared and comprehensive and Geoff’s team obviously went further and covered many of the little things that to most people, make the difference”.

“If you have booked with Geoff and Luxuria Destinations, or are thinking about it, then be assured that the trip and the content that Geoff creates for the group will be great, in fact it will far exceed your expectations. His tour leadership is not only professional; he puts everybody at ease and makes the whole fantastic experience very memorable”.

“To make tours like these successful you need to have a good network and a wealth of experience. Geoff Burke & Luxuria Destinations Pty Ltd certainly have all that it takes to ensure that you will have the best possible chance of a great golf adventure....the rest is up to you. I can’t wait to experience ‘Opulence’.”

John Barrett Golfer and Director, AMAC

Geoff and I first met 10 years ago over a game of golf at Sanctuary Cove. Very soon during our on course conversation it was evident that Geoff and I shared the dream of playing the greatest golf courses in the world, the ultimate for me being “Augusta”. I realised I may never play Augusta but could be part of the crowd and the atmosphere of the US Masters. This trip was part of the portfolio of events that Golf Destinations covered and I have been twice to Augusta with Geoff leading the tour, and while we did not play the Augusta National course we did get to play the Augusta Country Club which adjoins the National while the event was in progress right next door.

I have also been to South Africa with Geoff playing all the leading courses and doing a Safari, another wonderful trip offered by Golf Destinations. The trips are well researched, the accommodation is of a very high standard, the transfers go smoothly and the golf courses are ready for our arrival and needs.

All trips I have been on have left indelible memories, the privilege of going to such prestigious courses, the camaraderie, the organisation that has made the trip hassle free, to be able to relax and enjoy.
